PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

It is respectfully recommended the Court remove condition 14, and replace it with condition 20:

- 14 You shall reside in a residential reentry center for a period of up to 365 days. This placement may include a pre-release component, day reporting, and home confinement (with or without electronic monitoring, but not to include GPS) at the directions of the CCM and USPO. You shall abide by the rules and requirements of the facility. You shall remain at the facility until discharged by the Court.
- 20 You shall participate in the home confinement program for 365 days. You shall abide by all the requirements of the program, which will include electronic monitoring or other location verification system. You shall pay all or part of the costs of the program based upon your ability to pay. You are restricted to your residence at all times except for employment, education, religious services, medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment, attorney visits, court appearances, court-ordered obligations, or other activities as pre-approved by the supervising probation officer.

CAUSE

Daniel Ogle's case was re-sentenced by the Court on March 31, 2006. Per special condition 14, he was ordered to reside in a community corrections center for a period of 1 year. On June 16, 2006, Mr. Ogle was released to Bannum Place of Spokane. Within 1 week of his placement, he obtained employment at the Laborer's Union, Local #238. In a short period of time, he obtained employment at a livable, hourly rate of $19.81.

Re: Ogle, Daniel Lee

July 26, 2006

Page 2

He is currently working on the I-90 project in downtown Spokane with Degerstrom Construction. Due to the nature of the current job, he is needed at work 14-16 hours daily. This information has been confirmed through his supervisor, Darren Cornwell. His work schedule has created issues with his placement at Bannum. These issues have lead to conflict that are not in the best interest of Mr. Ogle, nor Bannum Place of Spokane. This officer has counseled the defendant in areas at which he appears to be at fault.

Mr. Ogle and his attorney have indicated if he continues to reside at Bannum, it may negatively impact his employment. This officer has investigated the issues reported by the defendant, his attorney, and Bannum staff.

It appears to be in Mr. Ogle's best interest to have his conditions modified to a 1-year placement on home confinement, in lieu of his placement at Bannum Place of Spokane.

Respectfully submitted,

by
